ONE OF THE FINEST COASTS IN THE WORLD

If you know that part of Aberdeen’s condition with sea views is one of the most sought after by Abassadors and geographers, you may be interested in the following: Aberdeen and Aberdeenshire coastal trail and explore the delights of the Scottish coast. This trail offers a wide range of activities including coastal walks, walking tours, historic houses, nature reserves, and an abundance of wildlife, expansive beaches, charming towns and villages, which will provide you with much more to see and do.

The map on the following page will assist in leading you along the Aberdeenshire and Banffshire coast. Make sure you stop off at some of the finest historic sites and scenic spots along the Aberdeenshire Coastal Trail. They will give you a great start to your journey and guide you to the next adventure.

Look out for businesses displaying VisitScotland's "Welcome to Scotland" signage. You can find more information about the region’s wonderful natural wonders and make sure you sample some of the finest seafood available.

For more information about Aberdeen and Aberdeenshire’s coastal trail, visit www.visitarbdn.com/coastal-trail.

DELIGHT IN OUR COASTAL LARDER

Discover the region’s abundant natural larder and make sure you sample some of the finest seafood available. In traditional fishing communities, you can see fresh catches being landed in harbours.

Talk to local sailors to support the Aberdeen’s award-winning seafood trading companies. Pick up groceries from local markets and fishmongers and tasty fish, all cooked to perfection.

With weekly, seasonal, and seasonal specials, plus a wide range of seafood options available, you are sure to be pampered by what you will find. Discover more local foodie delights at www.visitarbdn.com/food-local-produce.

WHAT’S ON

Aberdeen’s coastal towns and villages boast a variety of events to suit all tastes, from festivals celebrating maritime heritage to traditional folk music.

Join us on the Aberdeen & Aberdeenshire’s coastal trail and explore the delights of the Scottish coast. This trail offers a wide range of activities including coastal walks, walking tours, historic houses, nature reserves, and an abundance of wildlife, expansive beaches, charming towns and villages, which will provide you with much more to see and do.

For more information about Aberdeen and Aberdeenshire’s coastal trail, visit www.visitarbdn.com/coastal-trail.

Visit Aberdeenshire
www.visitarbdn.com