Explore 1,000 miles of stunning coastline and discover islands with spectacular scenery and abundant wildlife. Don't miss Hoy Nature Reserve, where the moorland, cliff tops and the famous Old Man of Hoy rock stack provide the perfect home for diving seabirds such as guillemots and kittiwakes. Take a trip to Brodgar RSPB Reserve to catch sight of curlews, lapwings and even more captivating birdlife.

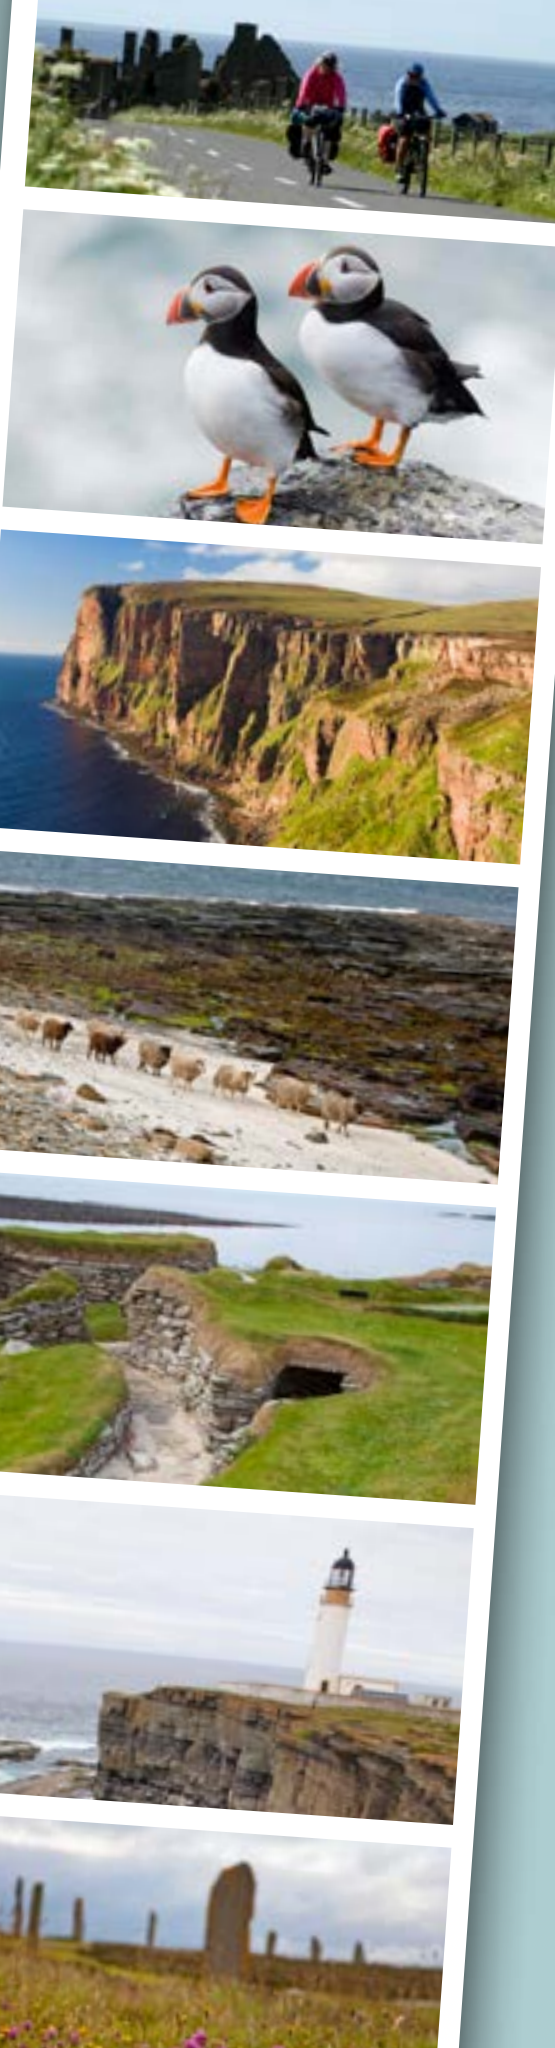

Popular with outdoor enthusiasts, the islands are a great location for participating in water sports or outdoor adventures. Take to the cliff top trails to view the stunning seascapes, or try diving for your chance to uncover the shipwrecks situated along the coast, such as the remainder of the German naval fleet which was scuttled in Scapa Flow in 1919. Or relax and enjoy gentle coastal walks along serene, sandy shores such as those of Sanday and Stronsay beach.

Steeped in history, explore the prehistoric village of Skara Brae, where you can discover how the people of Orkney lived over 5,000 years ago as you view ancient homes fitted with seats, dressers and even beds made of stone. Considered to be the best preserved group of historic houses in Western Europe, Skara Brae makes for a great day out. Visit the fascinating neolithic Ring of Brodgar to uncover an intriguing stone circle thought to have been erected between 2,500BC and 2,000BC. Plus, be sure to discover some of the surprising sights too, such as Europe's oldest standing house, the Knap of Howar on Papa Westray, an impressive 5,500 years old.
