Some great deals in the Highlands & Islands

At the 2013 Royal Highland Show, the Highlands & Islands Heritage - Land of Opportunity will come alive in the Countryside Area with a stunning giant mountain created especially and designed to give showgoers the chance to try their hand at some of the incredible outdoor adventures available in the region including climbing and abseiling.

If your visit to the show has inspired you to take a break in the Highlands & Islands, then why not take a look at some of the great offers available to make a visit even better value.

To take advantage of any of these offers, contact the provider direct to make a booking quoting Royal Highland Show 2013. All offers in this guide are valid from 1st June 2013 until 31st December 2013 unless otherwise stated, subject to availability and offered under each operator's own terms and conditions. The Highlands & Islands Presidency Initiative and VisitScotland take no responsibility for the offers listed. All offers are not to be used in conjunction with any other offer.

Uncover the truly fascinating history of the North Highlands by visiting historic castles, museums and visitor centres. It's also the Year of Natural Scotland, so now is the perfect time to experience the epic terrain of the mountains, lochs, waterfalls and beaches of this region. Look out for whales and dolphins on a wildlife tour or get active and enjoy mountain biking, walking, kayaking, fishing, golfing and more. Climb a mountain, visit a castle or dine out in award-winning eateries; there's plenty of things to see and so in this wonderful part of Scotland.

Wild North

(supported by VisitScotland) Wild North is a collection of authentic natural experiences, events and activities all with environmentally responsible principles. These include wildlife, plant life, marine life, outdoor activities, natural attractions, walking, heritage, culture, landscapes, geology, archaeology, food,
events and festivals.

Wild Flower Europe

The Wildflower Europe Project has been created to celebrate the art, culture and history of wild plants in the places where they grow, among the communities who maintain them. You can contribute to the Patchwork Meadow, an amazing piece of public participation art which will be exhibited around Britain in 2013 and 2014 or enjoy some of the events that make up the Wild Flower Festival.

Inverness, Nairn & Loch Ness

Inverness, known as the 'city in the highlands', is blessed with an abundance of historic gems and culinary delights, while the coastal town of Nairn boasts golden sandy beaches and championship golf courses. Loch Ness needs little introduction. Take in captivating scenery on the cruises along this mysterious stretch of water said to be inhabited by the legendary Loch Ness Monster or gaze out onto it from the ruins of the iconic Urquhart Castle.
