The Scottish Fisheries Museum - Newhaven

The museum is located in an old boatyard building on the shore of Newhaven Harbour. It tells the story of Scotland’s fishing heritage, from the days of the traditional fishing boats to the modern trawlers of today. The museum includes interactive exhibits, films, and a collection of historical fishing gear and equipment.

Highland Folk Museum - Newtonmore

The museum is located in the heart of Newtonmore in the Scottish Highlands. It showcases the history and culture of the Scottish Highlands through a collection of traditional Highland dress, furniture, and household items.

Stirling University - Stirling

Stirling University is located in the heart of Stirling, a historic town in central Scotland. The university was founded in 1967 and offers a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate courses. The university is known for its strong emphasis on research and its commitment to excellence in teaching.

Glasgow University - Glasgow

Glasgow University is located in the heart of Glasgow, Scotland. The university is one of the oldest and most prestigious universities in the world, and it is renowned for its excellence in research and teaching. The university offers a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate courses across a variety of disciplines.

The Mitchell Library - Glasgow

The Mitchell Library is located in the heart of Glasgow, Scotland. It is one of the largest public libraries in the UK and is a treasure trove of literature, history, and culture. The library is named after John Mitchell, a self-made man who made a fortune in the coal mines and left his fortune to the city of Glasgow to build a library. The library is a must-see for anyone interested in Scottish history and culture.

Clyde Cruisers - Glasgow

Clyde Cruisers is a group of volunteers who restore and operate historic boats on the River Clyde. The group is located in the heart of Glasgow, Scotland, and it offers boat trips and tours along the river. The group is a great way to explore the river and meet other history enthusiasts.

Clydebank - Clydebank

Clydebank is a town located in West Dunbartonshire, Scotland. It is a major industrial town, with a long history of shipbuilding and engineering. The town is also home to a number of historic buildings and landmarks, including the Clydebank Museum and the Clydebank War Memorial.

Abbotsford - Abbotsford

Abbotsford is a major tourist attraction located in the Scottish Borders. The house was once the home of Sir Walter Scott, the famous Scottish author, and it is now a museum dedicated to his life and work. The house is a beautiful example of Scottish architecture and is a must-see for anyone interested in Scottish history.

Drumnadrochit Castle - Drumnadrochit

Drumnadrochit Castle is a historic castle located in the Scottish Highlands. The castle is a fine example of medieval architecture and is surrounded by beautiful gardens. The castle is a great place to visit for anyone interested in Scottish history and culture.

Loch Katrine - Loch Lomond & Trossachs

Loch Katrine is one of the largest lakes in the Trossachs, a region of central Scotland. The lake is a popular destination for boating, fishing, and hiking. The lake is also home to a number of historic attractions, including the Trossachs Railway and the Trossachs National Park.

Glasgow Cathedral - Glasgow

Glasgow Cathedral is a historic cathedral located in the heart of Glasgow, Scotland. The cathedral is a beautiful example of Gothic architecture and is a major tourist attraction. The cathedral is also home to a number of historic treasures, including the burial place of Robert the Bruce, a famous Scottish king.

Tron - South Ayrshire

Tron is located in the heart of Ayrshire, Scotland. The town is a major tourist destination, with a number of historic sites and attractions. The town is also home to a number of historic buildings, including the Tron Kirk, a beautiful example of Scottish architecture.

Dunoon Castle Gardens - Dunoon

Dunoon Castle Gardens is a beautiful garden located on the banks of the River Clyde. The garden is a fine example of Victorian landscaping and is a great place to visit for anyone interested in garden design and architecture.