Outlander Film Locations to Visit: Seasons One to Four

Tweddlethurn Country House - Edinburgh

We head south to Tweddlethurn Country House near Edinburgh, where Claire meets Jamie for the first time. The house is a fine example of a country house and is open to the public.

Outlander

Craigmara Castle - Edinburgh

The MacKenzie family home, and the site of many dramatic scenes in the series, Craigmara Castle is a magnificent property in the Scottish Highlands. The castle was used as a filming location for several key scenes in the series.

Outlander

Armstrong House - Midlothian

This beautiful, imposing, 18th-century home was used as the MacKenzie family home in the series. The house is surrounded by beautiful gardens and offers stunning views of the surrounding countryside.

Outlander

Culmore Old Kirk - Penicuik

This ancient Kirk was used as a filming location for scenes in the series. The Kirk is a beautiful example of Scottish medieval architecture and is a must-see for fans of the show.

Outlander

Beecraigs Country Park - West Linton

This stunning country park is a great place for a walking trip and offers stunning views of the surrounding countryside.

Outlander

Greyfriar’s Park - Falkirk

Greyfriar’s Park is a beautiful park located in the heart of Falkirk, offering stunning views of the surrounding countryside.

Outlander

Calendar House - Falkirk

Calendar House is a beautiful historic building located in Falkirk. The house is open to the public and offers stunning views of the surrounding countryside.

Outlander

Lindisfarne Palace - Linlithgow

Lindisfarne Palace is a beautiful historic building located in Linlithgow. The palace was used as a filming location for several key scenes in the series.

Outlander

Mortonavon Country Park - Linlithgow

Mortonavon Country Park is a beautiful country park located in Linlithgow. The park is home to a number of stunning features, including a beautiful lake and a network of walking trails.

Outlander

Bertie’s & Kinmel Railway - Broughton

Bertie’s & Kinmel Railway is a beautiful historic railway located in Broughton. The railway is a must-see for fans of the show.

Outlander

Blackness Castle - By Linlithgow

Blackness Castle is a beautiful historic castle located in Linlithgow. The castle was used as a filming location for several key scenes in the series.

Outlander

VISIT THE SCOTTISH LOCATIONS AS SEEN IN THE TV SERIES SEASONS ONE TO FOUR

GET INSPIRED AND PLAN YOUR OWN TRAVEL ADVENTURE AT: www.discoverscotland.com/discover/locations

KEY

National Trust for Scotland Locations

Historic Environment Scotland Locations

Parking

Parking nearby

Coffee

Coffee nearby

Shopping

Shopping nearby

Visitor Centre

Visitor Centre nearby

Admission Fee

Free admission

Traffic Facilities

No special facilities needed

Adaptation

No adaptation required

Camping

No camping allowed

GET INSPIRED AND PLAN YOUR OWN TRAVEL ADVENTURE AT: www.discoverscotland.com/discover/locations
Hopsin House - South Queensferry
Seasons 1 to 4

One of the top attractions at the historic town of South Queensferry, Hopsin House was once the home of the Duke of Queensberry. The grand building, with its large plasterwork and painted ceilings, is just one of the many historic houses in the area.

Fishermans Cove - Fife
Seasons 1 to 4

A picturesque little fishing village known for its traditional stone houses and the traditional black tented roofs that are often seen in the area. The village is also home to several historical sites such as the 13th-century church.

Highland Folk Museum - Newtonmore
Season 1

A recreated 18th century Highland village, complete with traditional houses and farms. The museum aims to preserve the unique history and culture of the Scottish Highlands.

Stirling University - Stirling
Seasons 1 to 4

The university is located in the heart of Stirling. The campus site features a range of historical buildings, including the historic Stirling Castle.

Glasgow University - Glasgow
Seasons 1 to 4

The university is located in the heart of Glasgow. The campus site features a range of historical buildings.

Andrew Carnegie's Birthplace - Dunfermline
Season 1

The birthplace of Andrew Carnegie, one of the most famous Scottish inventors and industrialists. The house now serves as a museum.

Holburne Museum High Street - Wiltshire
Seasons 1 to 4

Situated in the historic town of Bradford-on-Avon, the Holburne Museum is home to a wide range of art and sculpture.

Dundrennan Castle - Ayrshire
Seasons 1 to 4

This 12th-century castle served as the residence of King William the Lion and as a fortress for the earls of Douglas. It is now a museum and visitor centre.

Reid's Island - East Lothian
Seasons 1 to 4

This small island off the coast of East Lothian was once home to a large ironworks and has been transformed into a nature reserve.

Dumbarton Castle - Dunbarton
Seasons 1 to 4

An ancient castle built on a steep hill overlooking the River Clyde. The castle has been used as a prison and a fortress over the centuries.

Drummond Castle Gardens - Perthshire
Seasons 1 to 4

This stunning garden is designed in the style of the Scottish baronial style and is surrounded by a network of waterways and pools.

Dundonald House Hotel - Strathmore
Seasons 1 to 4

A grand hotel located in the heart of Strathmore. The hotel features a range of accommodation and facilities.

Kelvinside Hytop - Glasgow
Seasons 1 to 4

A modern art gallery located in the heart of Glasgow. The gallery features a range of contemporary art exhibitions.

St Andrews in the Square - South Queensferry
Seasons 1 to 4

This beautiful church is situated in the heart of South Queensferry. The church features a range of historical artefacts and memorabilia.

Ben Hope - Sutherland
Seasons 1 to 4

This stunning mountain is located in the northern Highlands of Scotland. The mountain is a popular destination for hikers and climbers.

Urban, Fashionable, Energetic, Vibe: The St Andrews
Seasons 1 to 4

An energy-packed city, the St Andrews is home to a thriving arts and culture scene, making it a great place to visit for lovers of art and culture.